

YANN BEREHOUC

Contemporary and world music

As a musician, composer and performer, Yann Béréhouc finds his inspirations in the Mediterranean and Amerindian cultures. His travels and local encounters feed and strongly influence his music.

Free of any style, his creations are recognized in South America as a new musical opus, between impressionist, folk, baroque, flamenco and avant-garde music.

An alumnus from the École Normale de Musique and the Jazz Academy of Paris (CIM), Yann Béréhouc has won numerous musical awards, such as the Mimpi Special Mention at the 6th International Music & Cinema Festival.

Yann Béréhouc has collaborated with many world music ensembles and has written music composition for film for many years. He regularly supervises and accompanies artistic projects. He has participated in numerous national events such as the "Techniscènes" of the Cathedral of Reims.

Soloist, he plays regularly in France and abroad, including at the prestigious Kirchner Cultural Center in Buenos Aires in Argentina.
